

HAUTECOURT—Where "B" and "A" Companies, 321st Infantry, were engaged in almost hand-to-hand fighting on the morning of Nov. 11, 1918. (Dept. of Meuse.)

TERRAIN WEST OF MORANVILLE—Where 1st Bn., 321st, relieved "A" and "L" Companies, 322d, afternoon of Nov. 10th, showing holes made by "B" Company, 321st, to protect themselves from artillery fire. From this point the 1st Bn., 321st, "went over" at 6:05, Nov. 11, only to be halted by the armistice at 11 a. m. Picture taken Nov. 12, 1918, showing men salvaging their underwear, sox, etc., which they had thrown away the morning of the 11th.